SUFFRAGE WORKER
IN HICKMAN TODAY.

Miss Lily R. Glenn will hold a meeting tonight at 7:30 at the residence of Mrs. S. M. Hubbard in the interest of Woman's Suffrage, and while in Hickman will make several addresses in an effort to interest the ladies of the town in the movement.

Miss Glenn is under the direction of the National Congressional Committee of the National American Suffrage Association. She has been attending the Institute at Fulton this week.

CANOEIST VISITS HICKMAN.

John E. Coultas, a newspaper reporter of Winnipeg, Canada, who is making a canoe trip from Winnipeg to New Orleans, was in Hickman last Friday. He left St. Louis on Aug. 31, and is averaging 50 miles a day. He expects to reach New Orleans by Oct. 1st. Leaving Winnipeg Coultas traveled down the Red River through Lake Traverse and Big Stone Lake to the Minnesota River which he followed to St. Paul. From St. Paul he came down the Mississippi to Hickman. He is gathering material for several special articles.

Germany's population is only 66 million but there are 2 million births there every year, or one to every sixteen couples—a remarkable record. On the other hand, the birth rate of France is decreasing every year. The pitiful weakness of the French before the Germans furnishes a most powerful argument for those responsible for the agitation against race suicide. France's ablest statesman, by the way, have long since pointed out the seriousness of the matter there.

Marriage license issued in Obion county last week: O. W. McKenzie to Rosie M. Carter, W. M. Jones to Guarnier B. Gray, O. E. Polsgrove to Bessie Younger, R. L. McFall to Annie Busby, E. H. Condie to Willie Reaser, Loyd Edwards to Stella Milner, Seisel N. Jonakin to Pearl Jolly, Bryan Huggins to Beulah Hart, Charlie Tipton to Willie Harper, Walter Cooper to Ida Ray.

The great battle of Waterloo, where Napoleon's star set never to rise again, was but child's play after all in comparison with the Titanic struggle now in progress near the same place. Only 200,000 men were engaged at Waterloo, and the battle lasted only eight hours. Compare that with the millions now flying at each other's throats for days at a time.

Floyd Naylor, of Alexander, La., is here the guest of his parents, Judge W. A. Naylor and wife. Floyd holds a responsible position in the engineering department of the T. & P. Ry. Co., and is being rapidly promoted.

J. A. Norment, of Dyersburg, is now employed as clerk by the C. M. & G. Ry. in this city. His wife will probably join him here in a few days.

W. F. Blakemore returned Monday from Huntsville, Ala., where he has been visiting his brother.

WE ARE WAITING
